ABOUT BOONE: Boone Elementary is a public school that is part of the Highland Park Independent School District for grades K-4. It is located at 8385 Durham Street in the northwest corner of University Park. Opened in the fall of 2020, Boone is the district's fifth elementary and first to be opened since 1949. A significant amount of proceeds from all Boone Dads Club (BDC) events fund school beautification, special projects, and teacher support. Additional information about the Boone Dad's Club can be found at www.boonedadsclub.com and additional information about Boone Elementary can be found at www.boone.hpsid.org

TAX EXEMPTION: The Boone Dad's Club is part of the Park Cities Dad's Club and is an organization that raises money on behalf of Boone Elementary to be exclusively spent for the students of Boone Elementary. All donations to the Boone Dad's Club are deductible under Section 170 of the IRS Code and the Park Cities Dad's Club is exempt from federal income tax under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Internal Revenue Service has classified The Park Cities Dad's Club as a public charity under sections 509 (a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) of the Internal Revenue Code.
